The winners of this week's attendance cups are in KS1 - and in KS2 -

Events Outside of School

Parking

Please can you make sure you park considerately when dropping off and picking up your children. Manor court and Whitfield Lodge are private residential homes and parking on their premises is not permitted, please do not block the entrances to these homes either because they have ambulances and other vehicles attending at all times. Thank you!!

Allergies

Please can you make sure that children do not bring nuts into school as there are children within school who could have an allergic reaction to them. Please be considerate of others thank you.
